Why Grant Thornton

Established in 1981, we are one of China's first accounting firms, and among the first Chinese accounting firms to qualify to engage in securities business, futures and financial audit work, in addition to audit work for extra-large state-owned enterprises. We are also a PCAOB registered firm and have been awarded the H-Share licence, which enables us to sign off audits of Chinese-incorporated companies that are listed in Hong Kong (which are known as 'H-Share companies').

Our clients

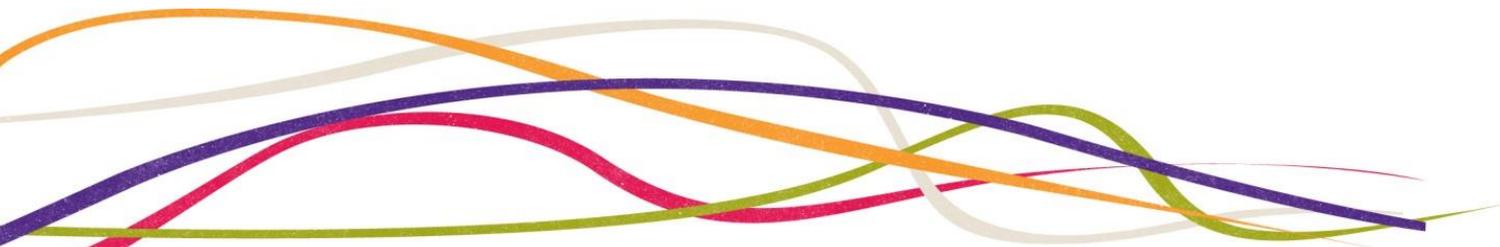

Grant Thornton serves a broad client base that encompasses more than 140 public companies and over 2,000 state owned enterprises (SOEs) and privately held businesses, as well as foreign-invested enterprises.

Awards we've won

- 2014 China top 10 most influential brands of service trade industry (at CIFTIS 2014)
- Grant Thornton ranked in China Top 100 Ideal Employers 2014 (By Universum Communications)
- 2014's Top Five Auditing Agencies for Overseas Listed Chinese Companies (By Zero2IPO Group)

How we work

Operating as a national platform, we have a great number of qualified professionals who work closely with experts from member firms worldwide. An International Business Centre was also established in China, which provides us an easy access to the global resources and enables us to serve our clients across borders by leveraging the experience and expertise of the partners worldwide.
