Juha-Pekka Keimmo
Managing partner

“Our experienced advisers are connected by solid expertise and experience in owner managed companies as well as special features of other business forms and public interest entities. Our advisers constantly improve their expertise because quality work for the benefit of our clients is our primary objective.

As a result of our vast service portfolio, experienced personnel, cohesive audit methods and great international network, we are able to effectively serve all clients. Flexible and tailored services to each client’s individual needs are an honorary issue for us.

As to ensure the long term operational profitability of our clients, we offer an extensive selection of services. They include appropriate and functional solutions in auditing, tax consultation and other advisory services.”
